

WW I Deceased Eye Bell-Ringers

Lance Corporal Ernest William Clover

Norwich Diocesan.

Died 23/04/1916, age 26.

16th (The Queen's) Lancers - Household Cavalry & Cavalry of the Line Battalion

16th Lancers (the Queens) attached Military Mounted Police None Shown Service

No. 3026. Commemorated at Noeux-Les-Mines Communal Cemetery, France, Grave

I. J. 22. Son of Mr William N & Kate Clover Born: Finningham, Stowmarket, Suffolk

Enlisted: Norwich Resided: Eye, Suffolk

Private Albert Cutting

Norwich Diocesan.

Died 08/11/1918, Age 18.

Royal Fusiliers 53rd Bn. Service No. TR/Lon/139610. Commemorated at Eye Cemetery, Suffolk, England, Grave 2. 147. Son of James & Ellen

Maria Cutting of Eye, Suffolk. Died in the Military Hospital at Cannock

Chase. Born: Eye, Suffolk Enlisted: Resided: Eye, Suffolk

Sergeant George Edward Day

Norwich Diocesan.

Died 12/08/1915, age 27.

Suffolk Regiment "A" Coy. 5th Bn. Service No. 178. Commemorated at Helles Memorial, Turkey, Panel 46 and 47. Son of Frederick and Sarah

Day, of Brewery Rd., Eye, Suffolk; husband of Ethel M. Thorndyke

(formerly Day), of 12A, Bungalow, U.K. Glass Works, Hayes, Middlesex

- A member of the Day of Eye Bellhangers family. The 5th Battalion,

Suffolk Regiment embarked Liverpool 30th July 1915, arrived Suvla Bay

10th August 1915 and George was killed on the 21st. Born: Eye,

Suffolk Enlisted: Resided: Eye, Suffolk